

Above it all'

Like many of the group, I grew up in awe of the wonderful entertainment emanating from my TV screen. All 4 channels...

Above it all is a tribute to the sketches of The Two Ronnies and Alas Smith and Jones.

A simple plot-twist word-play exchange like so many of those wonderful two-handers, Above it all captures a brief moment in the life (and impending death?) of 2 men on a cliff edge.

An awesome effort by all involved in the evening's filming, with so little preparation, but so much talent and enthusiasm. Let the edit commence!
