

'To us just about everything impressed us about this film. The opening sequence with its use of the tune on the radio too carry us through his journey home and his wife's preparations for going out. The rhythm and pace of the story that followed. Very well scripted and edited. Lighting, sound editing and mixing were spot on. A challenging script for the actors but they were up to the challenge. Good direction. Could have been watching a professional production.'

Phil Marshman F.A.C.I.
Frome Film and Video Makers